

Monday and Friday Pursuit Racing

April 29, 2010

Monday and Friday pursuit races are for fun and the objective is to provide an excuse to go sailing on a Monday or Friday plus provide a more casual racing experience for less experienced skippers and crew. Due to the course location pursuit races are also a good spectator event.

Pursuit races are for fun and are not controlled by TBYC or TBYC Race Committee. There is no Protest Committee and therefore no official recourse available if fouled by another boat. Boats start according to their prescribed start time and we hope all racers will abide by the ISAF Racing Rules of Sailing and the TBYC Racing Code of Conduct.

Schedule

- Assuming boats choose to participate, pursuit races will take place all Mondays and Fridays throughout the sailing season.
- Race start time is 1800 hours. Boats will cross the start line according to the specific start time assigned to each boat per the handicap-oriented start time calculations below.
- Pursuit race results are not specifically logged and no series results will be published.

Courses

The courses are around fix navigational marks inside the break-wall near Prince Arthurs Landing Marina. The starting line for the two following courses is between the flagpole on the end of Pier One and the small floating 'no wake' mark located off the end of Pier One.
